Probiotics China Summit - June 18, 2019
Regal International East Asia Hotel 516 Hengshan Road,
Shanghai, China

This year is the first year to organize Probiotics China. It will be an annual event and is done in conjunction with partners International Probiotics Association (IPA), FoodMate and China Chamber of Commerce. The audience will primarily be made up of Chinese dairy, food and supplement R&D people. This event is positioned as a business development platform to give international brands a stage to show their products and network with China's industry leaders. If you want to learn more about how to do business in China's supplement industry, please also consider attending the N&H Summit listed above. If you would like to attend both events, which I think you should definitely consider as they cover different topics. If you attend Probiotics China, You can attend N&H Summit for half price ($200).

Topics covered during the event include the following:

Probiotics Global Trends
Probiotics Global Regulations
Presentations from Sponsors
Latest R&D from around the world
Delivery Solutions
IPA Updates
Academic Leader Keynotes
